Synopsis

All Detective Mason Callahan wanted was a quiet fishing trip with the guys - a chance to get away and unwind before Halloween. Until he finds the body of his boss, Denny Scheffe, near their remote Oregon cabin. Now all he wants is to catch the sadist who slit Denny's throat and covered his face with a mask. Mason was the last person to see him alive and will stop at nothing to find his friend's murderer. When the FBI learns of the mask left at the scene, they realize they have a serial killer on their hands - one who is targeting cops. They assign the case to Special Agent Ava McLane, despite her engagement to Mason. Barely recovered from her own nearly fatal injury and her sister's attempted suicide, Ava hopes she is ready to chase another killer. But as she delves into the increasingly disturbing case, the killer may be closer than expected - dangerously close.

Customer Reviews

I may be wrong but I am of the opinion that this series is about suspense with some romance and family issues (his son, her sister) thrown in. After all, the main characters are a member of the Oregon State Police Violent Crimes Unit and a special agent of the FBI. The premise behind this book was great. It begins with the murder of Mason Callahan's departmental superior. From there, it moves to the death of an FBI agent, that occurred earlier, which was ruled a suicide by the medical examiner. Both are discovered wearing horror film character masks. Then there are two more OSP officers murdered. Who is targeting police officers and why? Who else is targeted for death? What is the reason for the masks? Since Ava has recently returned from medical leave, her "plate" is not too full. Therefore, she and her partner are assigned to investigate for the FBI. The investigator for the OSP has to monitor Mason's participation since he is the last person to see with his "boss" alive and he discovered the body, making him a witness and a possible suspect. Of course, any novel worth its salt, has side issues that seem to create diversions for the main character(s). Ava can't seem to avoid her twin sister's mental issues. Although Ava is paying for Jayne to be treated in an excellent institution, they even have her painting again. Still, Ava has serious questions about whether Jayne has figured out how to con the professionals into believing she really has improved more than she actually has. Enter David. Ava meets him in a store "showing" Jayne's watercolors and he keeps turning up everywhere Ava goes, asking questions about Jayne. Who is he and why does he seem to be so interested in Jayne?
